

Rugby League Listening Club Initiative

Checklist for meeting with players

- ✓ An appropriate mixture of ages
- ✓ A suitable room away from coaches, committee, and other players
- ✓ Permission from parents to take part/photograph taken
- ✓ Paper for recording responses, Post It Notes for players to write down points/ideas
- ✓ Print off the template question sheet or use paper
- ✓ Fill in the feedback form and send to Colette Eden by posting or emailing safeguarding@rfl.uk.com

Begin the session by explaining what you are doing and assuring the group that what they say will be grouped together and their responses will remain confidential. Explain how it will work and how long they will be there (no more than one hour). Stress the importance of their contributions to the improvement of their team and club. Make sure that you give positive replies to the contributions made to encourage the players to speak freely with confidence.

Question 1 – What do you like about our club?

Question 2 – Is there anything we could do to improve the club for you? If so – how?

Question 3 – What do you enjoy about training?

Question 4 – How could we make training better or more enjoyable?

Question 5 – What do you enjoy most about playing?

Question 6 – Is there anything we could do to make playing better for you?

Question 7 – Does anything worry or concern you when you are in the club? When you are playing/training?

Question 8 – Do you have any ideas for improving the club?

Question 9 – Any ideas for improving your team?

Question 10 – Do you know how to and who to report any worry or concerns you might have?

Question 11 - Any other question/Idea – Any question that has come out from previous questions

